II. JURISDICTION

2. Jurisdiction of this court arises under 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 1337. Declaratory relief is available pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. Venue in this District is proper in that the Defendant transacts business here.

III. PARTIES

3. Plaintiff, Adam Grodek, is a natural person with a permanent residence in Mc Donald, Bradley County, Tennessee 37353.

4. Upon information and belief, the Defendant, Professional Account Services, Inc., is a corporation engaged in the business of collecting debt in this state and in several other states, with its principal place of business located at 7100 Commerce Way, Ste. 100, Brentwood, Williamson County, Tennessee 37027. The principal purpose of Defendant is the collection of debts in this state and several other states, and Defendant regularly attempts to collect debts alleged to be due to another.

5. Defendant is engaged in the collection of debts from consumers using the mail and telephone. Defendant is a “debt collector” as defined by the FDCPA, 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

6. The debt that Defendant is attempting to collect on is an alleged obligation of a consumer to pay money arising out of a transaction in which the money, property, insurance or services, which are the subject of the transaction, are primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, whether or not such obligation has been reduced to judgment.

7. Within one (1) year preceding the date of this Complaint, Defendant, in connection with the collection of the alleged debt, attempted to communicate with Plaintiff at Plaintiff's place of employment after being informed that this inconvenienced Plaintiff and/or was conduct prohibited by Plaintiff's employer.

8. The natural consequences of Defendant's statements and actions were to produce an unpleasant and/or hostile situation between Defendant and Plaintiff.

9. Defendant utilized unfair and unconscionable means to collect on Plaintiff's alleged debt, by continuing to contact Plaintiff at his place of employment after being instructed to stop.

V. CLAIM FOR RELIEF

10. Plaintiff repeats and realleges and incorporates by reference to the foregoing paragraphs.

11. Defendants violated the FDCPA. Defendants' violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) Defendant violated §1692c(a)(1) of the FDCPA by communicating at a time or place known or which should be known to be inconvenient to the Plaintiff; and

- (b) Defendant violated §1692c(a)(3) of the FDCPA by communicating with the Plaintiff at the Plaintiff's place of employment when the Defendant knew or had reason to know that the Plaintiff's employer prohibits the Plaintiff from receiving such communication; and
- (c) Defendant violated §1692d of the FDCPA by engaging in conduct the natural consequences of which is to harass, oppress, or abuse any person in connection with the collection of an alleged debt; and
- (d) Defendant violated §1692f of the FDCPA by using unfair or unconscionable means in connection with the collection of an alleged debt.

12. Defendant's acts as described above were done intentionally with the purpose of coercing Plaintiff to pay the alleged debt.

13. As a result of the foregoing violations of the FDCPA, Defendant is liable to the Plaintiff, Adam Grodek, for statutory damages, costs, and attorney fees.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that judgment be entered against Defendant, Professional Account Services, Inc., for the following:

- A. Declaratory judgment that Defendant's conduct violated the FDCPA.
- B. Actual damages.

- C. Statutory damages.
- D. Costs and reasonable attorney fees.
- E. Awarding Plaintiff any pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as may be allowed under the law.
- F. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
